RE - SPECIAL INVESTIGATION

Visited cafe located at 255 French St., opp. Sandford St., conducted by K. Chickon, spending evening in and about the premises in endeavor to connect and learn first name and address of Pinkus or Pinchus. Also to establish if Clifford Hayes and Raymond Schneider frequent here.

The only names I could hear or learn during the evening was Peter Lynch, Ed or Ned Maher and others called by names of Bill, Hank and Hookie.

Conversation at times touched on the Hall-Mills case, but was only of what appeared in newspapers as regards ex-trooper Dickman and the reported new woman witness. No mention made of anything of material benefit.

Respectfully submitted,

Thomas L. Harrison
